GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE RAYACHOTY DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Academic Year 2022-2023

The Department of Urdu Medium organized one day Field Trip to Gurramkonda fort and Horsley Hills on 22 March 2022. We would like to submit the Brief Report of it.

GURRAMKONDA FORT

Gurramkonda is a Hill-Fort town whose historical name was Zafarabad. Gurramkonda fort is Hill fort in Chittoor district of the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh. It is located in the village Gurramkonda, It is considered one of the oldest forts in the district.

According to sources this fort was built during Vijayanagara Empire and later it came in control of Abdul Khan, the Nawab of Kadapa, in the year 1714 CE.

Rangeen Mahal

Abdul Nabi Khan constructed the of Gurramkonda fort in 1714 AD. He built a colorful palace which is called Rangeen Mahal for his office work. Even today after over 300 years, the construction work of this palace attracting the tourists.

TOMB OF MIR RAZA ALI KHAN CALLED MAQBARA
There is also a tomb for Tippu Sultan's maternal uncle MIR RAZA ALI KHAN
Maqbeera, similar to most Islamic tombs built in India. It is Second Largest Tomb in India after GolGumbad Bijapur.Karnataka.

Horsley Hills

Horsley Hills or Horsleykonda or Yenugulla Mallamma Konda is a series of hills in Andhra Pradesh in Madanapalle Taluka of Chittoor district. The local name of the hill was Yenugu Mallama Konda after a legend of a saintly old woman named Mallamma who lived at the top of the hill and was fed by elephants (yenugulu). W.D. Horsley, a British collector, built his home around 1870 after whom it is named. In contrast to the dry and hot surrounding, this area is well vegetated with cooler climate. This made it attractive as a hill station and a tourist spot. The minimum temperature is around 15 °C and the maximum temperature is 30 °C. and its Highest Height is 1,290 m (4,230 ft).
