Yogi Vemana University, a Premier State University established by an act of the government of under Pradesh in March 2006, believes in “Creation and dissemination of knowledge, attainment of enlightened wisdom through advancement of learning progress and progress of people and social enrichment”.

Department of Telugu is one of the active departments in the school of humanities which was established in the year 2006. The central objective of the Department of Telugu is to promote studies in Telugu Language and Literature. The Department carries out teaching and research in Telugu with emphasis on various aspects of historical and comparative studies in language and literature.

Realising the importance of imaginative resources, a great philanthropist named Sri Polepalli Narasimhulu Gupta started the college, a temple of learning in the year 1978. Government degree college Rayachoti earlier affiliated to SVU, Tirupathi and now affiliated to YVU, Kadapa and has status of 2(F) and 12 (B) of the UGC New Delhi. It has been flourishing as a centre of learning since its inception. It took its birth on a Junior College premises. It became a full-fledged institute only in the year 2005. It is located on the NH-8, Hyderabad and Chittoor. It is spreading its wings slowly and steadily. It offers the under graduate courses B.A., B.Com. B.Sc., B.Sc (Computers) and B.A. (UM), B.A. (UM Computers) Courses. A majority of the students seeking admission in this college are hailing from the down trodden and economically poor section of the town and 50 peripheral villages. The present student strength of the college is 456 and 90% of them being the first-generation literates

The Department of Telugu, Government degree college ,Rayachoti wishes to enter into memorandum of understanding with The Department of Telugu, YV University, collaborate for academic and research purposes.
